

“The second time we tried to catch the owl, it flew across the parking lot into Island Time, the shop across the way!”

Oops! Although we tried to help, neither Fran nor I had any clue how to catch an owl. Thankfully the Marco Island Owl Watch heroes quickly arrived to save the day.

Island Time has always been one of my favorite Marco Island shops. This inviting shop is always having a great sidewalk sale and keep their door wide open to welcome customers and – oops – the occasional owl!

Island Time has something for everyone. This awesome shop is open daily and offers a wide variety of unique and customized clothing, accessories and gifts for women, men, and children. For more information, go to Island Time.
