

The story starts at happy hour at the Marco Island Brewery.

When I sat down to dinner with my parents and thought Fran was coming to see if I'd lost my phone, it turned out she was looking to find help for a lost owl. And the rest is history.

The Marco Island Brewery is a great sports bar and restaurant that offers a wide selection of craft beers from around the world and delicious lunch and dinner menus. The Brewery's awesome bar has plenty of seats inside and out, plus lots of outdoor seating on the patio. There's tons of seating inside as well, and a huge selection of games to watch on the Brewery's 40+ HD TV's.
