

“The curious crowd at The Crazy Flamingo laughed as I ran across the parking lot...”

Not only did Fran and I help save an owl, we provided live entertainment for the crowd enjoying Friday night happy hour at The Crazy Flamingo, directly across from the spot in the parking lot where the owl was hanging around.

The Crazy Flamingo is a fun neighborhood bar and restaurant with a cozy casual atmosphere, ice cold drinks and great lunch and dinner menus. They open at 11:00 AM daily, until 12:00 AM Sunday–Thursday and until 2 AM Friday and Saturday – great news for those who like to stay out past “Marco Midnight”.

Check out The Crazy Flamingo online for their great menus and special events.
